For Emergency Managers

QuickTips

To better respond in disasters, first responders should follow these basic steps before an emergency to ensure their own family’s preparedness:

1. Be informed: What disasters are likely in your area? What’s your community’s evacuation plan?
2. Have a plan: Where will your family go in an emergency? How will you keep in touch?
3. Have an emergency supply kit.

For more preparedness information, select from our complete collection of Field Ready guides.
